

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record       You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.         Ask us to correct your medical record       We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.         Ask us to correct your medical record       You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.         Request confidential communications       You can ask us to correct present with itel you why in writing within 60 days.         Ask us to limit what we use or share       You can ask us no to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. . We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.         If you pay for a service or health care item out- of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. . We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.         Get a list of those with whom we've shared information       You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.         Get a copy of this privacy notice       You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.         Choose someone to act for you       If you have given s	When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.
Information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.Ask us to correct your medical recordYou can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.Request comfidential communicationsYou can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.Ask us to limit what we use or shareYou can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out- of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy noticeYou can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you <th>Get an electronic or paper copy of your</th> <th colspan="2">• You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have</th>	Get an electronic or paper copy of your	• You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have your medical recordthat you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.Request 		information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may writing within 60 days.Request confidential communicationsYou can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.Ask us to limit what we use or shareYou can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. • We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.Ask us to limit what we use or shareYou can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. • We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.If you pay for a service or health care item out- of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. • We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. • We will include all the disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy notice• You can ask for a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you• If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise you reghts and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can file a complain tif you feel we have violated your rights by contacting	your medical	that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do confidential communicationsexample, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.Ask us to limit what we use or shareYou can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. · We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.If you pay for a service or health care item out of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. · We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy notice· You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you· If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise you feel your rights are violatedFile a complaint if you can file a complain if you feel we have violated your rights are violated· You can file a complain tif to u 200 independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/oc Ask us to limit what we use or shareYou can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. • We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. • If you pay for a service or health care item out- of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. • We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. • We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care • operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy noticeYou can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for youIf you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise you rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you can complain if you feel we have violated your rights are violatedYou can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W	confidential	example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
we use or shareInformation for treatment, payment, or our operations. • We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.• If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. • We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared information• You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. • We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care • operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy notice• You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you• If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. • We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page. • You can after a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independenc	Ash as to Bash ash at may say "no" if it would affect your care.If you pay for a service or health care item out- of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health careoperations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy noticeYou can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for youIf you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violatedYou can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint if you feel your rights a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.		information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
<ul> <li>in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.         <ul> <li>We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Get a list of those with whom we've shared information</li> <li>You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.</li> <li>We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care</li> <li>operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.</li> <li>Get a copy of this privacy notice</li> <li>You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.</li> <li>Choose someone to act for you</li> <li>If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.</li> <li>We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.</li> <li>File a complaint if you can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.</li> <li>You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.</li> </ul>		may say "no" if it would affect your care.
information.Get a list of those with whom we've shared informationYou can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care • operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy noticeYou can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for youIf you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violatedYou can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint if you feel your rights are violatedYou can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.		in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health with whom we've shared informationFou can ask for a have (accounting) we've of inter the we've of inter your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care• operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy notice• You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you• If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
treatment, payment, and health care• operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy notice• You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for you• If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.	with whom we've	your health information for six years prior to the date you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.Get a copy of this privacy noticeYou can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for youIf you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violatedYou can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
privacy noticeyou have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.Choose someone to act for youIf you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violatedYou can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.		asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask act for yousomeone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.• We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated• You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.• You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.		you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will
<ul> <li>for you before we take any action.</li> <li>File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated</li> <li>You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.</li> <li>You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.</li> </ul>		someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
you feel your rights are violated by contacting us using the information on the back page. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.		for you before we take any action.
Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.	you feel your rights	by contacting us using the information on the back page.
		Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696- 6775, or visiting
		• We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

never share your       Sale of your information         information unless       Most sharing of psychotherapy notes         you give us written       Most sharing of psychotherapy notes	In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:	<ul> <li>Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care</li> <li>Share information in a disaster relief situation.</li> <li>Include your information in a hospital directory.</li> <li>If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.</li> </ul>
·	In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:	<ul> <li>Marketing purposes</li> <li>Sale of your information</li> </ul>
fundraising: tell us not to contact you again.	In the case of fundraising:

Run our	We can use and share your	Example: We use health organization	health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.	information about you to manage your treatment and services.
Bill for your services	We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.	Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.
We are allowed or re- usually in ways that and research. We hav share your information	or share your health inform quired to share your inform contribute to the public go ve to meet many condition on for these purposes. For ivacy/hipaa/understanding	nation in other ways – od, such as public health s in the law before we can more information see:
Help with public health and safety issues	We can share health information about you for certain situations such as: Preventing disease Helping with product recalls Reporting adverse reactions to medications Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety
Do research	We can use or share your information for health research.
Comply with the law	We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.
Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
Work with a medical examiner or funeral director	We can share health informa medical examiner, or funera individual dies.
Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests	<ul> <li>We can use or share health information about you:</li> <li>For workers' compensation claims</li> <li>For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official</li> <li>With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law</li> </ul>
	For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services ation about you in information exchange (HIE) called Health Current. It will not cost you anything and can help your doctor, healthcare providers, and health plans better coordinate your care by securely sharing your health information. I acknowledge that I received and read the Notice of Health Information Practices. I understand that my healthcare provider participates in Health Current, Arizona's health information exchange (HIE). I understand that my health information may be securely shared through the HIE, unless I complete and return an Opt Out Form to my healthcare provider.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you	<ul> <li>We can use your health information and share it with other professionals</li> </ul>	Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor who are treating you.	about your overall health condition.

- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- $\cdot\,$  We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of This Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.

This Notice of Privacy Practices applies to the following organizations.

Joseph A Caplan MD dba Cardiac Solutions 13460 North 94th Drive J-1 • Peoria, AZ 85381 • 623-876-8816 www.CardiacSolutions.net

HIPAA Compliance Officer Virginia Renteria • 623-876-8816 Ext. 278 • MedicalRecords@cardiacsolutions.net

Effective Date April 2003 • Revised April 202